

Ca' Fedespina, Toscana Igt 2018
Top 100 Italian Wines

95/100

The pure Merlot of Podere Fedespina is the Bordeaux counterpart of Pinot Noir, Burgundy in Lunigiana.

The 2018 harvest shines from the nose with its own light, broad and open on the blackberry and cherry. Palate in the wake, on a perfect taste-olfactory correspondence.

A savory character accompanies the sip from entry to finish, making it irresistible to drink a wine that does nothing to hide (and why should it, on the other hand?) its entire structure.

Very young wine, with great perspective, which shines in persistence, on delicious returns of crunchy fruit.

Vermentino, Durella and Chardonnay:

a white that tells the story of Lunigiana, a land to discover in which the "Winery of the Year" of the 2022 edition of our Wine Guide operates. Full, bright straw yellow. Splendid on the nose, with hints of citrus fruits, fresh white and yellow flowers.

Further in the background, essences of the Mediterranean scrub such as laurel and rosemary. Great citrus tension, hints of green apple, light tannic and - even more - savory perception, forming the backbone of the nectar on the palate.

The result is a wine that combines, like few others, great drinkability and a high gastronomic profile.

92/100

Pinot Noir from vines over 50 years old.
At sight it has a typical bright ruby red.

*Nose on berries, strawberry in full view.
Savory character, great freshness, citrus on the currants and cassis.*

A vintage that shines in persistence, with delicious returns of crunchy fruit.
